"Let's all sing together—Singing is Sharing."

These words by Thomas Moore are what he is all about. Thomas' selection as Charlotte Jaycees' "Young Man of the Year (1978)" was based on the sharing of himself through music with our community both young and old. Thomas is a native of Gastonia and a graduate of the Manhattan School of Music. His work has been with Spirit Square, Bethlehem Center, Sound of America, Community School of the Arts, Charlotte Opera, many churches, and the schools. He is artist-in-residence at UNCC. His recordings include "Ole Time Religion", "How Great Thou Art," and "Our Community", (A Children's Album).

The Charlotte Civitan Club makes this presentation possible as a memorial to one of its members, Bishop Herbert Spaugh, who loved and worked for the public schools.
