

Sunday, November 15 at 7pm

Providence Baptist Church | 4921 Randolph Road, Charlotte, NC 28211

Coinciding with National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week, Carolina Voices' Festival Singers is partnering with local organizations working to educate and bring awareness of the scope of homelessness in our community. The Festival Singers will present a heartfelt evening of music and spoken word that features messages that give voice to the homeless. The highlighted work will be the Beatitude Mass: For the Homeless by Henry Mollicone for chamber orchestra and choir. This piece incorporates words from the Latin Mass juxtaposed with English words by William Luce. The new texts are drawn from interviews Mollicone and Luce conducted with people living in homeless shelters. Other music on the program will include, Choral Reflections on Amazing Grace by Roger Ames, The Road Home by Stephen Paulus and more. Special guests: Tuned In Community Choir, directed by Dr. Thomas Moore.

Tickets: $18 adults; $16 seniors; $10 students

Online: www.carolinatix.org

Phone: 704.374.1564 or 704.372.1000

More info: www.carolinavoices.org

Tickets will be available at the door

We will be collecting new or gently used hats, gloves, socks and scarves to be distributed by our partner organizations serving the homeless.
